Congress.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—SENATE.—Senate bills introduced were referred as follows: By Mr. Conkling, of New York, granting pension to Mrs. Ann M. Paulding, widow of the late Hiram Paulding, Senior Rear Admiral U. S. N. Referred to Committee on Pensions. By Mr. Hamlin, of Maine, by request, for promoting the efficiency of the corps chaplains in the U. S. Navy. Referred to the Committee on Naval Affairs.

Mr. Windom, of Maine, submitted a preamble and resolution setting forth the allegation that the U. S. Patent Office had become an institution of oppression, and therefore directing the Committee on Patents to consider the expediency of some other mode of compensating inventors in the place of the present system. He gave notice that he would submit some remarks thereon at the expiration of the morning hour.

Mr. Cameron, of Wisconsin, submitted a resolution requesting the President of the United States to furnish the Senate with copies of reports of United States Marshals or other officers, and such other correspondence as he may have, relative to the recent elections in the States of South Carolina and Louisiana. Agreed to.

A message was received from the House of Representatives announcing the passage of a bill to correct the omission in the Sundry Civil Appropriation bill of last session, in regard to Hot Springs reservation.

Mr. Dorsey asked the present consideration of the bill.

Mr. Edmunds, of Vermont, thought a bill of this importance should not be acted upon without being printed and referred to the Committee on appropriations. He therefore moved that it be printed and referred to that Committee. It was so ordered.

At the expiration of the morning hour, the Senate, on motion of Mr. Edmunds took up the bill to amend sundry provisions of chapter one, title three, of the Revised Statutes of the United States, relating to Presidential elections, and to provide for and regulate the counting of votes for President and Vice President, and the decision of questions arising thereon. Mr. Edmunds addressed the Senate in favor of the bill.

At the conclusion of Edmunds' remarks, Morgan, of Ala., took the floor and will speak to-morrow.

The Senate executive session confirmed the following nominations: Postmasters, J. H. Campbell, Grenada, Miss; Algernon S. Badger, New Orleans, La; Mrs. A. J. H. Thompson, Memphis, Tenn; Jas. W. Thomas, McKinney, Tex; Edwin R. Brink, Wilmington, N. C.; Jas. Trotter, Greenville, C. H., S. C.; Jesse R. Wilkes, Cartersville, Ga; Augustine A. Fletcher, Marietta, Ga.

The President sent to the Senate today the following nominations: David H. Bailey, of Ohio, Consul General at Shanghai; Andrew P. McCormick, U. S. District Attorney General for the Eastern District of Texas.

HOUSE.—Among the bills introduced during the morning hour were the following: To compel National banks to receive the standard silver dollar as equivalent in value to gold coins of U. S., and directing the Secretary of the Treasury to use ten million dollars legal tenders, held for redemption of fractional currency, in payment of that amount of 5-20 bonds.

Page, of Cal., introduced a bill to enforce the 14th and 15th Amendments of the Constitution. The bill recites that in the late election in South Carolina a large number of male citizens belonging to one political party were by law enacted by the legislature of said State, and by a concerted system, of oppression, and terrorism and fraud, denied the rights secured to them, under the Constitution, and enacts that after the 4th of March, 1879, the State of South Carolina shall be entitled to two members of the House of Representatives, on a basis of the whole number of white inhabitants in said State.

Atkins, of Tenn., rising to a personal explanation, sent to the clerk's desk and had read a statement from the N. Y. Herald, attributing some responsibility to him for the failure of the Hot Springs clause in the Sundry Civil Appropriation bill last session. He had also read letters from Senator Conover, Rainey, of S. C., member of the Committee on Enrolled Bills, two of the Engrossing Clerks, exonerating him from all connection with the matter.

A resolution was adopted for the appointment of a committee of nine members, to investigate a method of preventing the introduction and spread of epidemic diseases.

HOUSE—A motion suspending the rules to pass the bill prohibiting the further coinage of the trade dollars, and directing their exchange and recoinage into standard dollars, was defeated; yeas 104, nays 91.

Hewitt, of New York, introduced a bill to make the silver standard dollar interchangeable with gold.

The Control of the Red Men.

By Telegraph to the News

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—Before the Indian committee ex-Senator Morrill said: "We are bound to respect and aid this race in every way. A radical change in the law is the only way to reach the desired result. The Indians should be localized and educated to enable them to meet the almost certain eventuality of delivering their lands to American settlers. Legislation to protect the Indians from depredations, is absolutely necessary." Jno. Young, agent of the Black Feet Indians, of Montana, next spoke, saying the Indians under him unanimously oppose the transfer. They were enterprising and contented. Senator McCrary proposed that the evidence be closed. Gen. Hooker desired to hear two gentlemen to-morrow, regarding the beef contracts mentioned by Hayt Saturday. Adjourned until to-morrow, after which they will proceed to prepare the reports.

Carolina Cotton Crop.

By Te egraph to the News.

NORFOLK, Dec. 9.—The Cotton Exchange makes the following report of the condition of the crop, compiled from twenty-two replies from sixteen counties in North Carolina and Virginia. Six report the weather for gathering cotton during November as favorable, while sixteen say the weather was more favorable than last year. About eighty to ninety per cent. of the crop has been picked, and picking will be finished about the 10th of Dec. Five replies report the yield as about the same; four about ten per cent. more, and 13 say the yield is from 25 to 30 per cent. less than last year. On an average about three-quarters of the crop has been marketed.

Another English Bank Gone to Wreck.

By Cable to the News.

BRISTOL, Dec., 9.—The circulation of the West of England and South Wales District Bank is limited to £85,535 The number of stockholders are 2099, chiefly persons of small means, a share being worth nominally £20, of which £15 had been paid up. The nominal capitol was a million pounds and reserve fund £156,000. The dividend for 1877 was 8 per cent. The failure is attributed to the depression of business long prevailing in South Wales.

Marry me or I'll Kill You.

N. Y. World.

Mr. William T. Hunt, accompanied by his wife, his son, a young man, and Miss Tessie C. Hunt, his daughter, who was weeping bitterly, called on Inspector McDermott, at Police Headquarters to report that David H. Risby, aged twenty two, forced his daughter Tessie, who is twenty years old, to marry him by threatening to cut her throat with a razor. Tessie Hunt gave music lessons to Risby's sister and the latter had threatened to cut his throat if she would not elope with him. Saturday Miss Hunt called to give Miss Risby her lesson, when Risby came into the parlor, called his sister aside and sent her on a pretended errand. As soon as she was gone he seized Miss Hunt and said that if she valued her life she must go with him and be married. She struggled at first, but was frightened into submission, when the young man drew a razor and declared that if she resisted him he would cut her throat. Then she endeavored to gain time, hoping to meet a police officer in the street. Young Risby half led her and half dragged her to the residence of the Rev. Samuel H. Virgin, pastor of the Harlem Congregational Church. The clergyman summoned a servant and another person as witnesses, and the marriage ceremony was performed, Miss Hunt showing no reluctance that awakened suspicion on the part of the clergyman, but satisfying her conscience by nodding when asked: "Wilt thou take this man for thy lawful husband?" Miss Hunt went immediately to her pastor, the Rev. Halsey Moore, and, confiding her secret to him, sought his advice. He directed her to inform her parents, and they decided to invoke the aid and protection of the police. Warrants will be sworn out against young Risby and the Rev. Mr. Virgin.

Ought Not to Make Charges.

Courier-Journal.

The Republicans, while steeped to their very eyes in the most stupendous of frauds—frauds which gave them a President whom the people had rejected at the polls—are howling themselves hoarse over what they call Democratic frauds in South Carolina. It is like a branded horse-thief, mounted on a stolen thousand-dollar horse and leading half a dozen others, accusing an irreproachable Christian gentleman of stealing the photograph of a ten-dollar mule.

He's Not the Man to Say So.

Louisville Courier Journal.

The President, in his annual message, calls the attention of Congress to the election frauds in the South," meaning the alleged Democratic frauds, of course. But isn't that a little unkind in the President? How would he like for Congress to call his attention to the little election fraud that placed him in the White House? While he is in it that house is a glass house. and he ought to be mighty particular how he throws stones.

VIRGINIA DARE.

Discovery of Remains of White People in Tennessee --- Are They the Bones of the Lost Colony of Roanoke.

Correspondence of the News.

ASHEVILLE, Dec., 7th.

At Big Creek, Tenn., I was shown bones of human beings which were unearthed at the time of building the railway. The workmen state that the bones of about 75 persons were found. These they first thought to be the remains of Indian mound builders. Around the neck of one was an ivory chain, 5 feet in length. The skull of this body was so large that a hat of size 7⅞ hardly encompassed it. An examination of the bones revealed the fact that cavities in the teeth of one were filled with gold, which made the fact that the bones were those of white people, known at once.

The remains were found at the depth of about 4 feet. The land has not been cultivated for more than a hundred years, and no tradition exists of this having been a burial ground. My inference is that the remains must be those of the colonists who were left on Roanoke Island, in 1585, and who, it has always been thought, wandered away, leaving no trace behind, save the one word "Croatan," on a tree. If this be true one of these skeletons must be that of Virginia Dare, the first white female child born on American soil.

The place whence the bones were taken is a rich valley, and the great number of stone relics found here indicates a thickly settled locality. We examined the country surrounding it for a great distance, and made every inquiry. We found tree stumps which indicated that there was cultivation of this country about 300 years since. In the parts unfit for cultivation, being difficult of access, the trees are much older, and in all the rich coves innumerable relics of the stone age are found. It may be that this was the place at which these early settlers were sacrificed by the people whose headquarters were at this point.

On a prominent mountain in this settlement we examined a mound about 25 feet in circumference and 8 feet in height, on which were growing trees more than two hundred years old. In this we found no bones, but quantities of stone arrow heads and utensils. We found charcoal and inferred that fires were built there, either to offer a sacrifice to their deities, or to give warning of the approach of an enemy.

How Fortunes are Lost and Won

A Colorado mine operator and a ranchman discovered a large deposit of bicarbonate of lead and zinc blend near the South Arkansas river, about seventy-miles south of Leadville. A dispute arose between them, and the ranchman agreed to sell out to his partner for $6,500, if the whole amount of money was paid within eight months. The mine operator actually stinted himself and family the common necessaries of life to get the money, and paid $4,000 out of the $6,500, but having a large number of unpatented mines to work out the annual assessment required by law, could not meet the last payment in time. He went to St. Louis, and tried for three months to raise the money by offering one-half the mine to any good business man that would join him and pay the $6,500 that the entire share when fully paid would cost, but failed to raise the money. On his return to Colorado, his ranchman partner coolly told him his time was up, and it would take just about $100,000 to get his share in the mine. During the miner's absence in St. Louis the ranchman had worked a few feet further into the mine and uncovered as great a deposit of carbonates of lead with silver as has yet been discovered. These gentlemen now hold their property at the snug little sum of $500,000.

Saturday, January 11—Home and Foreign Missions and the conversion of the world. On Sunday evening, January 12, public union meetings will be held for prayer and praise.

Fire in Wilmington.

Wilmington Sun.

Saturday morning a negro man walking along North Water street stepped on a match in front of the open door of Messrs. Willard Brothers and Mebane's storehouse. The match head flew off into a ball of cotton and one of the heaviest fires Wilmington has had this year, was the result. The negro on seeing the cotton ignited, ran to the back end of the store and told what had happened, but before they could get to the door, the bale began to blaze and to communicate flames to the cotton next to it. There were eighty bales in the building, and it was not ten minutes before everything on the first floor was on fire and the flames were leaping up the stairway where they seized on another lot of cotton. The total loss is about $8000, all covered by insurance.

United States Court at Charlotte.

Charlotte Observer.

This court meets in Charlotte Monday, Judge Dick presiding. It is expected that Judge Bond, of the United States Circuit Court, will also be present during a portion of the session, probably arriving about the last of the first week. Although this will be the first term of the court ever held in this city, the dockets will be full—sufficient to occupy the entire session. The civil docket is at present larger than at any other point where the court is held in this State. One of the most important cases to come up at this term is that of the Spartanburg & Asheville Railroad, in reference to the appointment of a receiver.

KENTUCKY'S CIVIL WAR.

A Terrible State of Lawlessness in Breathitt County.

Washington Post.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Dec. 8.—The Courier-Journal correspondent, who was sent to Breathitt county to write up an account of the civil war that has been ranging there for the past two weeks, after a horseback ride of 150 miles over mountain roads and through snow and rain, returned to-night, and represents that the affairs in Breathitt county are indeed in a deplorable condition, and that instead of being exaggerated, the stories about the strife there do not represent as bad a state of affairs as really exists. Law is overridden and county officers are powerless to make a single arrest. Prominent citizens, who have been threatened have fled for their lives, and Jackson, the county seat of Breathitt county, is almost depopulated. Opposing parties are encamped a few miles from each other, and are likely to have a collision at any moment. The state of affairs there, the correspondent says, is equal to if not worse than they were during the war, when bushwhackers and home-guard companies filled the hearts of the strongest men with terror and dismay.

How to Keep Silver in Circulation.

N. Y. Tribune.

Congress made the silver dollar a legal-tender, but neglected to provide that the Government should give gold in exchange for it. Hence the banks are unable to pay gold for silver. But the only way to keep in free circulation coins of instrinsically inferior value is that which France has adopted with such success. Many Congressmen point to the fact that a very large amount of silver coin is kept in circulation in France, but they forget that the Government keeps it at par by giving gold for it to any one who wants gold. Wherever the Government does this, the banks can. So they can take the Government note at par whenever the Government will give gold for it on demand, but not otherwise. If members of Congress sincerely desire to bring silver into circulation as the equivalent of gold, let them cease to growl at the banks for doing exactly what Congress itself has done; let them provide that at every Sub-Treasury or Government depository gold dollars shall be paid on demand for silver dollars, as well as for paper dollars. Then, and not till then, the banks can properly pay out gold dollars for silver or paper dollars. A little reflection must surely convince members of Congress that they have legislated very absurdly in this respect, and that silver dollars can be made to stay in circulation only when the Government itself treats them as the equivalent of gold.

Straight to the Hearts of all Men.

(Virginia (Nev.) Chronicle.

The dusky banjo man goes up and down the streets singing for his bread. His banjo is a sweet toned instrument, and under his skillful fingering it gives forth a dozen familiar melodies that ravish the uncultivated ear of the populace. The first faint notes of his prelude, or even the tuning of his strings, causes a dozen men sitting around on dry goods boxes or holding up awning-posts to prick up their ears and slowly gravitate towards the spot. They come in from every point of the compass, and when he begins "Way Down Upon the Suwanee River" every face beams with pleasure, and the nodding heads keep time to the music. Once in a while the performer misses a note or fills in a gap in the tune with a false one, but that takes all the better, for it gives every man in the crowd a chance to frown and knit his eyebrows, or in some other way show that his experienced ear has detected the blunder. Then, when the musician jumps up a few notes and launches into the chorus, every face glows with delight and every brogan beats sympathetic time. The music flows out of that old battered banjo, with its stained sheepskin and worn catgut, and falls like manna in the wilderness upon the hearts of men, filling them with a feeling of charity for all the world. That old tune comes over them like sweet odors wafted up from the orange-groves and everglades of the South. A little dash of one of these old-time melodies has a better and more lasting influence on a man than the sublimest strains Mozart ever put into his grandest symphony.

England and Russia in Central Asia.

According to the London correspondent of the Edinburgh Scotsman it is rumored in the English capital that the Central Asiatic question might be probably settled by the partition of Afghanistan between England and Russia. Russia being now fully convinced of the rapid and assured success of the English troops, has abandoned her warlike aspirations and endeavors to come to amicable terms with England. The Russian Government cannot fail to see that if the mountain passes through the Hindoo-Koosh remain under Russian influence, Russia's strength will be equal to England's, whereas if they get into England's hands, there will be no end to her pretensions and meddling in Russia's affairs in Central Asia. It is difficult, therefore, to understand how England could consent to an arrangement that would tend to menace her Indian frontier.

The Population of the Earth.

A German collector of statistics estimates the population of earth at 1,340,145,000 souls, of whom about 413,000,000 are Christians, and 900,000,000 non-Christians. Catholics number 210,000,000 and Protestants 115,000,000. Of the Greek Church there are 80,000,000, and of other Christians 8,000,000. Jews are reckoned at 7,000,000, Mahometans at 120,000,000, and "the Heathen" of all kinds at 770,000,000.

The Darkeys Don't Like It.

Mr. G ode, who represents the Norfolk (Va.) district in Congress and who has been re elected says that the law making payment of the poll tax a prerequisite to voting, which obtains in Virginia as it does in many northern states, disabled between 1500 and 2000 white voters and between 6000 and 7000 colored in his district. It probably disfranchises a great number of colored voters in all the Southern States, for they do not like to pay taxes, and in Georgia some years ago they very generally avoided registration even, out of a fear that if their names were registered they would be compelled to pay the poll-tax.

THE NEXT HOUSE.

How Clerk Adams Will Proceed in Making up the Roll.

Washington Post.

"How many notices of contests for seats in the next House have been filed with you?" was asked of Chief Clerk Adams.

"None," he replied. "It seems to be the general impression that such matters have to be filed in my office, but that is an error. Formerly the law provided that the member whose seat was contested should not draw pay until the contest was decided; then it was necessary that the clerk should be informed of a contest in order that he might keep the name of the sitting member—the one having the certificate—off the pay roll. That law was repealed, I believe, by the Forty-third Congress. In contested cases now the evidence is sent to my office for transmission to Congress. It comes to me in a sealed envelope, and I merely indorse on the outside that it is evidence in a certain contest, and put it in a safe place until the meeting of Congress. Then I deliver the envelopes to the House. So far, I've heard of only two contests. One is for Shelley's seat, and Maj. Yeates, of North Carolina, who intends to contest."

"Is Haralson going to contest with Gen. Shelley again?"

"Yes."

"In making up the roll of a new House, Mr. Adams, are you governed by the certificates?"

"I am required to ascertain that the certificate is in accordance with the laws of the United States and of the states, respectively. For instance, if a certificate were delivered to me certifying that A. B. was elected to Congress on the 4th of July, 1878, I would know that it was not valid, because there is no law authorizing an election for Congress on that day. There is no special formula prescribed for the certificates, but they must conform to the laws, both State and National. The law governing my course is very plain and allows no discretion."

The Southern States were Never Out of the Union.

Springfield Republican.

The decision of the United States Supreme Court requiring Tennessee to receive the depreciated notes of its State bank in payment of taxes, although the notes were issued during the war while the State Government was in rebel hands is of considerable importance, as showing the Court's position respecting the status of the seceding States. The court holds that it is a fanciful idea that there could be two different States, one loyal and one rebellious, within the same limits. and practically says that secession never took the Southern States for one moment out of the Union by the denial that rebel State Legislation is void and invalid. The States were States all the time, and their acts while in secession are binding now. The Charleston News and Courier holds that this practically decides that the whole action of Congress in prescribing conditions for the return of the Southern States "into the Union" was unlawful, the reconstruction acts "unconstitutional, revolutionary and "void," and the constitutions formed under those acts unlawful and invalid,—in short, that the governments of the Southern States, based upon the reconstruction acts, derive their sanction from the subsequent consent of the people of those States, and not from any other authority. The Charleston paper, however, anticipates "no disposition in the South to rip up the reconstruction acts and begin over again." But it does consider it within the probabilities that the North may attempt to disfranchise the negro, on the ground that the constitutional amendments were ratified by State Legislatures elected, not under State laws, but under military orders pursuant to an unconstitutional act of Congress, in which case "the South, defender of the rights of the freedmen, will oppose and prevent it."

Moody's Religious Campaign in Baltimore.

Mr. Moody is systematically pursuing his religious campaign at Baltimore and the returns are just becoming apparent. Among the most conspicuous converts is that of a noted local politician. It is Mr. Moody's intention to stay in Baltimore all the winter, and very likely all the spring, and during that time he hopes to be able to speak in just as many churches as possible in all parts of the city. He will also hold special meetings for young men after a while. The Madison-square Methodist church is so far the one to profit most from revival influences, 400 penitents having presented themselves at its altar, and over 200 of them have professed conversion. A band of Jesuits at St. Joseph's Catholic church in South Baltimore have been converting Methodists and persons of other denominations during the past two weeks by almost exactly the same arguments used by Mr. Moody up town in converting Catholics and members of no religion at all. There is one authenticated case of a Catholic being turned by Mr. Moody, and there is also one unmistable case where a former Methodist was formally baptized and received into the Catholic church by the Jesuits.

An Elaborate Swindle.

An ingenious fraud has been committed upon a wealthy merchant residing near Paris. A few days ago he received a letter informing him that the writer had ascertained that a box containing treasure was buried in his garden, and offering to indicate the exact spot if he would agree to divide the spoil. The merchant was at first inclined to treat the letter as a hoax, but upon receiving a second and more pressing one he sent an answer agreeing to the proposal. The next day he was waited upon by a gentleman of agreeable manners, and it was arranged that the search should be made at night, to prevent the neighbors from talking. The box, a very weighty one, was duly unearthed and, when taken into the house and opened was found to contain 8,000 francs in silver pieces of 5 francs each. The merchant, much pleased at the result of the search, at once handed over the half which he had promised to his informer, who remarked that it was a rather heavy lump to carry to the railway station, distant about a mile, and that perhaps the merchant could oblige him with notes or gold instead. This the merchant was very happy to do; but he regretted it bitterly the next morning, as he saw that the 5-franc pieces were spurious.

How her Crime was Discovered.

Some years ago a button found on the scene of a murder led to the detection of a murderer, and a pin has been of a similar service lately in Paris. A laundress, having received a handsome legacy, was foolish enough to mention to an acquaintance in the same house where she had placed the money. A few days later the other announced that she, too, had quite unexpectedly come into some money, and invited the laundress to breakfast. The latter came, and the entertainment passed off charmingly, but, strange to say, she got dreadfully sleepy after it, and only really woke up when her hostess had made her an extra strong cup of coffee. Upon returning to her room she discovered that she had been robbed. The police came and searched her bureau, when there tumbled out of some linen a pin which she immediately recognized as one that she had seen in her hostess' fichu on the day of the breakfast. A search in the latter's room revealed the thief, who had drugged the laundress at breakfast, slipped out of the room with the keys, robbed her, and put the keys back into her pocket.

National Bank Circulation.

N. Y. Tribune.

Until 1870, the bank circulation was limited to $300,000,000. It was then increased, reaching $349,894,182 by June 20, 1874. Under the act of that date, it increased to $351,861,450 on January 14, 1875. On that date the "free banking" clause of the Resumption act removed restrictions upon the issue of additional circulation, as well as upon the surrender of circulation by banks, and since that time National banks in all parts of the country have been free to increase their circulation by depositing more bonds, or to surrender circulation by depositing greenbacks for its redemption. Any five persons, by organizing under the National Banking Act, can obtain for issue, circulation equal to 90 per cent. of the value of bonds deposited. Under this act the circulation declined until August 1, 1877, when it was $315-236,838, exclusive of $1,430,000 notes of gold banks. It then began to increase slowly, and is now $321,832,-236. Banks at the West and South generally find circulation unprofitable, and the margin of profit is found very small even by banks of the Eastern States.

Lord Beaconsfield on American Commerce.

Rarely does a British Prime Minister on the opening of Parliament, and when the Queen's Message is under discussion, make such pointed reference to affairs in the United States and the Message of the President to Congress, as Lord Beaconsfield did on Thursday. This shows how anxious British statesmen, as well as English merchants, financiers, tradesmen and manufacturers, have become about American commerce, and the remarkable change that has taken place within the last few years in the commercial relations between the two countries. The reference of the Premier in his speech was to the condition and prospects of business in England. He said: "The recent words of the President of the United States, coming from such a quarter on such a subject, cannot be treated with too much consideration. Enterprise in America reacts on that of England. I look forward with much confidence to the influence of American industry and enterprise shortly producing more favorable results than we can now estimate."

Georgia's Prosperity.

Taking into consideration the hardness of the times, Georgia seems to be getting along very well. To be sure, there is a decrease in the grand tax list of the State; last year the reported total was $235 359,530, or $10,194,920 less than in 1876; but this is explained by the shrinkage of values. In live stock Georgia was $970,606 richer in 1877 than in 1876; in farming and mechanical tools, $438,851, and in bonds and stocks, $1,454,062. Population has slightly increased, in spite of the steady drain of the Texas emigration fever; whereas in 1876 there were in the State 204,507 men who paid poll tax, last year there were 207,815. The sum invested in cotton manufactories in 1877 was $2,739,200; the school fund was $150,-225. The State tax was 50 cents on $100, and the average county rate about the same. The colored people of the State returned taxable property reaching an aggregate value of $5,430,844.

The Ducktown Branch of the Western N. C. R. R.

Western Reporter.

This is one of the most important railroad lines in contemplation anywhere in the State, running as it does through the heart of one of the finest mountain sections in the world. A section which is acknowledged to be the finest fruit growing country, perhaps in the world—especially adapted to the culture of the apple. This line of road will also open up some of the richest vallyes of the State, where corn, wheat, and other valuable crops, together with all kinds of stock, are raised with great success. A considerable amount of grading is already done, and the work should be completed as soon as posible.

Another State Wants the Whipping Post.

The Legislature of Missouri has been petitioned by the Grand Juries of several counties to revive the whipping post in that State. The Boone county jury argues that "more punishment is imposed on the honest tax payer than is inflicted on the criminal by small pecuniary fines or short terms of imprisonment."

Assassination of an Ex-President of Peru.

Don Manuel Pardo, formerly President of Peru and lately President of the Senate has been stabbed. The details received are very meagre, but it is stated that on entering the Senate in order to discharge his important duties he was stricken down by an assassin. The event was not altogether unexpected. During his administration he was particularly severe on those who from any cause fell under his displeasure. Several offenders he banished across the Cordilleras to a settlement on the head waters of the Amazon. The soldiers who conducted them and guarded them on their arrival there had distinct orders to shoot any who attempted to escape. The severity of their confinement, the sickliness of the locality and its awful loneliness drove several of the prisoners mad. They attempted to escape, and were, according to orders, shot down. It is stated that their friends have watched for an opportunity to be avenged, and the dark deed of the 16th was the accomplishment of that bloody purpose.

The Electric Light in Use.

N. Y. Times.

It is a curious circumstance that Mr. Edison's experiments upon the electric light, and his alleged discovery of a successful method of so dividing and managing the currents as to make this mode of illumination practicable for for general purposes, have made nothing like the stir in this country that they have produced in England. Here the public have awaited developments with patient interest and curiosity, and the projects of the gas companies have apparently been little disturbed. At the same time there has been no such general activity among inventors and mechanics in making and testing contrivances for the application of the new discovery to practical purposes, while public corporations and private establishments have done little to promote its trial. For once the foreigner seems to have got the start of us, and to be leading the way in the adoption of a great improvement. In France and England several public bodies and many private concerns have interested themselves in the new mode of illumination. In England a good deal has been done. Not only is the London Board of Works experimenting on the city thoroughfares, the lighting of which is under its control, but the Corporation has made provision for lighting the space in front of the Mansion House and the Holborn Viaduct. Liverpool, Manchester, and several other municipalities have taken the matter in hand, and dock-yards, iron works, railway stations, and numerous manufacturing establishments, have been fitted with electric lights with satisfactory results. For the most part, the trial has been thus far confined to streets or open spaces, and large buildings requiring a great deal of light, and each area, whether open or inclosed, has had its own separate apparatus. The more important and interesting process of lighting an aggregation of private dwellings, with all their separate rooms, great and small, from one common generating source, has not as yet been successfully effected. It is toward this result that Mr. Edi- efforts are specially directed, and notwithstanding all that has been done already with the electric light, it is quite possible that foreign achievements may yet be eclipsed at a single stroke.

J. L. Stone, Esq.

Among the pioneer sewing machine men of the State is Mr. J. L. Stone, the general agent for the New Home Sewing Machine, on Fayetteville street. Mr. Stone began the business early in 1870 and has met with a succession of successes ever since. He has sold a great many machines—in all about 1500 amounting to about $100,000. His efforts of late have been devoted entirely to the New Home, one of the best in use—and his success has been quite remarkable, having sold not less than 400 since last March. *

Popular Wants--The Fence Law etc.

Of all interests, that of agriculture is the most important and the most imperative in its needs for the judicious aid of legislation. But it is also one of those interests from its very nature so independent and impatient of enforced protection, or unwise interference with its established traditions, that more harm than good may come from the enactment of laws designed to relieve or encourage it unless they are in response to an u m takable general demand and sentiment.

Among those measures supposed by many to promise the most striking and immediate revolution in the agricultural system of the State, to be followed by benefit to that interest, is the enactment of a general fence law. And the arguments in favor of such legislation cover many strong points. Statistics, laboriously collected, show that the cost of even the unsightly and perishable worm fence is one of the most expensive items of rural economy, exceeding, even where timber is abundant and counted as nothing. in the item of time and labor, many fold the whole amount of taxation raised from all sources. But, as under the rapid and wasteful destruction of timber, and under a prevalent habit of continually clearing and fencing new grounds, timber itself has now to be included as a heavy item of cost, so the expense of fencing is increased to that extent. And as some sections of the State are already nearly swept of timber, and can scarcely obtain fencing from that source at any price, so it has become a necessity to have the interposition of some agency which will give crops security without an expenditure for fencing which must ultimately destroy the profits of agricultural labor.

There is no dissenting voice in the testimony which comes from the counties in which such a law has a local operation. Expenses are at once reduced by the abandonment of fences, stock are improved by being kept up and made the subjects of closer personal attention. Lands are improved by increased facilities for collecting larger supplies of animal manures; and waste lands are put in process of restoration by the withdrawal of the animals who obstructed or destroyed the growth of young trees, making that effort to reclothe the land with the forest, the source of original fertility and value, and, in its renewal, the only hope of future resuscitation.

But there are on the other hand, large sections of the State, where forest, and not agricultural, interests predominate; where the immense pine belt, though varied with productive, arable lands, is yet the reliance for that industry which is one of the peculiar characteristics of North Carolina; or the grand forest region of the mountain section, offering in its spontaneous wealth of herbage tempting encouragement to pasturage and the inexpensive rearing of limitless herds and flocks. To fetter either of these sections by a law which would be advantageous to other parts of the State, would be the very tyranny of legislation.

All, therefore, that the legislature ought to do—all it can justly do—is to give every encouragement to such counties as wish to imitate the practices of such others as have adopted fence laws, by passing, without unnecessary restrictions, such bills as are presented for such purpose; or to pass some general enabling law, similar in its nature to that authorizing the creation of corporations without the necessity of any other formal, public act of Assembly.

The Moffett Register may come up for consideration.

Under the pressure of a heavy domestic and foreign debt, and under the weight of a heavy taxation, imperative to be raised, but most grievous to be borne, the State of Virginia promptly availed herself of the timely invention of the Moffett Register, as a new and unoppressive mode of adding to her revenue. She accepted, without hesitation, the principle that the gratification of an appetite indulged in at the cost of much public disorder, and production of much private distress, might be directed into a channel which would enforce at least one good out of it; and she argued that a traffic which lies under such heavy condemnation as the fruitful source of evil, might be made, indirectly, to bear burdens still heavier than already imposed upon it; but still, pressing so gradually and insensibly upon it as to divest the imposition of the character of oppression. This is done by the Moffett Register, which records every drink, alcoholic or otherwise, upon an instrument supposed to be practically under the control only of the State officer charged with a monthly examination, at which time the record is examined and verified.

For a while expectation was answered, and Virginia seemed to be in a fair way, indirectly, of meeting a large portion of her annual liabilities. But of late there is complaint that the revenue from that source is falling off. But with the disposition so largely manifested in this State to adopt the plan, it would be unwise to hastily condemn it for failures which may be susceptible of explanation, or for unfaithfulness of management which may be guarded against; and we then suggest the Moffett Register for the consideration of the legislature.

The Brooklyn Eagle, referring to the fact that Grant will make a stay of another year out of the country, by making a tour of Asia, says: As this arrangement will delay the General's return about a year, its political bearing on the Presidential contest will attract some notice. It seems to break up the programme of "triumphal processions" in the chief cities on the sea board, purely "non partisan" in their character. There are leaders on the Republican side who would just as soon General Grant would remain abroad until after the next Presidential election, and there are many others who, having no direct personal ends to serve, do not desire to have the Republican party set at defiance American traditions by nominating Grant for another term on the assumption that the country is in a terrible strait, and that Grant is the only man who can be relied on to "save" it. The country is so tired of encountering political emergencies that it is doubtful if "Grant and an emergency" would find favor even with the masses of Republicans, who still incline to old fashioned American methods for "saving" the country. As the fortunes of the Republican party decline Grant stock seems to run up; as they brighten, they appear to run down. From which we conclude that if the managers of the Republican party are satisfied that they cannot elect anybody else, they will try Grant in 1880. The latest information touching the General's own views is furnished by Bruce, the colored Senator from Mississippi, who is now abroad on a wedding tour. Bruce's account of his talk with the General on Presidential matters is a little hazy. He says he cannot recall the precise language used by General Grant, but the impression he left upon him was that if the country needed his services, and that if it could be shown to him that it was his duty to save the country, he would be content to accept a nomination for the Presidency, and take another trial at it. Only this much is clear, therefore: If it be the general opinion of the Republican party that the people cannot "save" the country, General Grant will not suffer it to go to the bow wows. Very little old fashioned American feeling in all this—but one of our two great parties seems to think otherwise.

A Tough Subject.

Among the other curiosities on exhibition at the American department of the Paris exposition was a spring chicken from an American boarding-house. The chicken was taken to the guillotine one morning, but, when the heavy knife fell on its neck, the fowl gave a frightened squawk, and, after one or two heavy pulls, jerked its head away from under the knife and made its way back to its coop in the exposition. The knife was sent to the foundry for repairs.

THE POPULAR SCIENCE MONTHLY.
Conducted by
E. L. and W. J. YOUMANS.

Containing instructive and interesting articles and abstracts of articles, original, selected, and illustrated, from the pens of the leading scientific men of different countries;
Accounts of important scientic discoveries;
The application of science to the practical arts;
The latest views put forth concerning natural phenomena, by savants of the highest authority.
Prominent attention will also be given to those various sciences which help to a better understanding of the nature of man, to the bearings of science upon the questions of society and government, to scientific education, and to the conflicts which spring from the progressive nature of scientific knowledge.

It is an instructive and valuable monthly and, as a consequence, is continually increasing in circulation and influence.

The Popular Science Monthly is now a large octavo of 128 pages, and will be considerably enlarged, beginning with the issue for January, 1879. It is handsomely printed on clear type, and, when necessary to further convey the ideas of the writer, fully illustrated.

SAVE YOUR HAIR | TO LEARN HOW TO DO IT READ AND HEED WHAT FOLLOWS.

SAVE YOUR HAIR.—The laws of Health and Longevity demand it, the customs of social life require it. The matter is of great importance in every way.

BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR.—It is the surpassing crown of glory, and for the loss of it there is no compensation.

CULTIVATE YOUR HAIR.—For by no other means can it be saved and beautified.

LYON'S KATHAIRON,

Discovered thirty-five years ago by Prof. Lyon, of Yale, is the most perfect preparation in the world for preserving and beautifying the hair.

Besides being the best hair dressing ever produced, Lyon's Kathairon will positively prevent grayness, and will restore new hair to bald heads, if the coats and follicles are not destroyed.

It actually performs these seeming miracles of which the following is

A FAIR SPECIMEN.

I have been entirely bald for several years, consumptional, I suppose. I used a few bottles of Kathairon, and, to my great surprise, I have a thick growth of young hair.
COL. JOHN L. DORRANCE, U. S. A.

In every important respect the Kathairon is also widely incomparable. It is unequaled
1. To Cure Baldness.
2. To Restore Gray Hair.
3. To Remove Dandruff.
4. To Dress and Beautify the Hair.

BEAR IN MIND.—The Kathairon is no sticky paste of sulphur and sugar-of-lead, to paint and daub the hair and paralyze the brain. It is a pure and limpid vegetable lotion, intended to restore the hair by natural growth and reinvigoration. It is splendidly perfumed, and the most delightful toilet dressing known. No lady's or gentleman's toilet outfit is complete without Lyon's Kathairon

HEGE'S IMPROVED CIRCULAR SAW MILL

MANUFACTURED BY THE SALEM AGRICULTURAL WORKS, SALEM, N. C

CIRCULAR SAW MILL.

LEVER FEED CUTTER.

Hege's Improved Circular Saw Mill, is no new and ununtried saw mill, but is one that is well and favorably known in many sections, and wherever it is introduced it is fast superceding all others. It is simple in construction, yet reliable in operation, and is sold for less than any other first class saw mill. Send for descriptive circular

Lever Feed Cutter,

Something entirely new and novel in the feed cutter line. With this cutter the feed is cut off diagonally, instead of square across, as is the case with all other cutters at the same time our cutter has a draw cut, acting exactly on the same principle that a knife is used in cutting off a stick, consequently with our Diagonal Feed Cutter we can cut more feed with less labor in a given time than any other cutter costing twice as much.
Price reduced to $8.00. Send for circular. Liberal discount to agents. No goods consigned. Manufactured by the Salem Agricultural Works, Salem N. C.

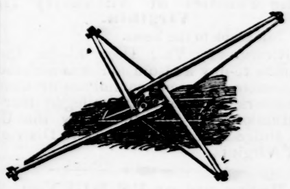
THE SALEM PLOW

Will not Choke. Runs light, Easily Regulated.
Try one. Liberal discount to dealers.
Manufactured by Salem Agricultural Works, Salem, N. C.

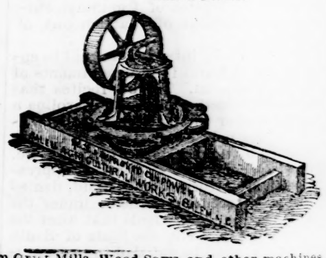
Hege's Improved Gin Bowers.
For 4, 6 or 8 Horses. Simple, Cheap, Durable, made almost entirely of iron. Not liable to get out of order. Just what the farmer needs. Send for descriptive circulars.

THE TRIPLE-GEAR HORSE POWER.

TRIPLE-GEAR POWER



GIN POWER.



For driving Threshers and Cleaners, Farm Grist Mills, Wood Saws and other machines used by farmers, having no team or water power. This power has an iron frame all in one piece, consequently cannot become loose or rickety. Powers for 4, 6 or 8 Horses. Send for prices and full particulars.

DAILY NEWS

TUESDAY.....DECEMBER, 10 1878

Events in the State.

LINCOLN.—Lincolnton News: The jail has 4 inmates.....B. C. Cobb has been appointed Attorney for the county.

IREDELL.—Statesville American: A light snow fell on Wednesday....We hear complaints about the yield of cotton from the seed, which is said to be less than former years, requiring at least 3½ pounds of seed to make one of lint.

CABARRUS.—Concord Sun: The ladies of the Presbyterian Church will give an entertainment on Thursday and Friday evenings....A large quantity of real estate was sold at the Court House door, Monday, and brought good prices.

MACON.—Franklin Reporter: Parties are shipping a great many cattle from this and adjoining counties just now. ....There is some talk just now of the Air Line Railroad building a narrow gauge road to this place connecting with that road near Toccoa Ga....A high school is to be established here.

GUILFORD.—Greensboro Central Protestant: The United States District Court is in session here this week. Hon. R. P. Dick, presiding....The head quarters of the District Revenue Department will be moved to this city at an early day....The streets of Greensboro do not present much evidence of monetary stringency.

CLEAVELAND.—Shelby Aurora: Cleveland is entirely too large and the people of the extreme northern portion want to be attached to a new county, and we see no reason why they should not have their wishes....A fair is to be held at Turkey Tail, Glen Alpine Station, on W. N. C. R. R., 6 miles West of Morganton, Dec. 25th and 26th.

NEW HANOVER.—Wilmington Sun: Coroner Hewlett, held an inquest over the bodies of the two drowned boys, of Middle Sound. The jury gave a verdict of "death by accidental drowning."..... Our city has been visited since the 22d day of last March, by 16 fires....Sunday. During the progress of the fire Saturday, the room of Mr. G. W. Lamb was robbed of seventy-five dollars....Star: George Kelley, who was accidentally shot in the leg on Thursday night, under the impression that he was Tom Johnson, is said to be very badly hurt.

UNION.—Monroe Enquirer: A Convention of the Baptist Ministers, in the Brown Creek Association, will be held in this place, commencing Friday the 27th inst.....The surviving members of Company "B," 5th Regiment volunteers and 15th Regiment State troops, hold a re-union meeting in the court house in Monroe, on Saturday, November 23d.....Mr. John Coan, living near here, is now nearly 98 years old. During the past fall he has picked out as high as 70 pounds of cotton in a day. .....Mr. John W. Beek exhibits a cabbage weighing 23 pounds....Rev. W. S. Black, formerly Presiding Elder of this District, now of Raleigh, is on a visit to Monroe.

MECKLENBURG.—Charlotte Observer: The daily rabbit chases with dogs through the crowded streets are a nuisance....The colored Methodist Church at China Grove was burned Friday night....If it is determined to sell the present Associate Reformed Presbyterian church, and erect another on Tryon street, which will in all probability be done, all the churches will be within a few blocks of the public square except one, and all on the same street except two....The Christmas exposition for the new Baptist church, will be opened on the 17th. The managers have met with prompt and generous responses from firms in New York and elsewhere.

Current News Notes.

The iron trade is completely depressed in England.

General G. T. Beauregard has been appointed Adjutant-General of Louisiana.

Thirty-seven per cent. of the convicts in the penitentiaries in this country are persons who never learned a trade.

All the Turkish prisoners of war, to the number of 58,000 men, who were sent to Russia, have been returned to Turkey.

The coinage of the mints for the year ending June 30, 1878, was $80,120,000, of which $52,789,980 was in gold coins.

Chon Yow, a Chinaman, was hanged at Bridgeport, Cal.; Thursday, for the murder of Ah Pow in Benton, Cal., last May.

A bill has been introduced in the House to repeal the law levying a tax of ten per cent. on the circulating notes of State banks and banking associations.

The amount of gold coin and bullion in the United States on September 30, 1878, is estimated at $259,353,390, and of silver $99,090,577, making a total of $358,443,949.

The total value of the prizes to be offered at the forthcoming great agricultural show in London amounts to $63,000.

The manufacture of jewelry from pure blood of the ox is flourishing in Germany. The blood is dried, reduced to a powder, and then molded and polished. The ornaments thus produced are capable of high polish.

The International Exhibition which the Government of New South Wales has done much to promote is likely to be undertaken. Between the city of Sydney and the Colonial Government $200,000 has been raised to forward it.

Talmage's example is proving infectious and is contaminating all New York and its environs. He has now a dozen imitators, visiting grog-shops and dancing halls week days and preaching thereon on Sunday.

The success which has attended the transportation of live cattle and sheep from this country to England, indicating that with proper precautions there is no great risk, and the low price and excellent quality of our beef and mutton, are creating considerable alarm among the stock raisers of England.

Immigration Increasing.

A turn seems to have come in the tide of immigration. The figures show a considerable increase over those of last year, whereas heretofore they have fallen off steadily every year since the effects of the panic began to make themselves felt. For eleven months of the present year the number was 72,147, against 52,007 for the same period last year, and 65,820 for the same period in the year before. This year is therefore an improvement upon 1876, as well as upon 1877—a fact which affords ground for encouragement in the prospect that this enriching tide will rise with the growth of better times.

THE GENUINE
DR. C. McLANE'S
Celebrated American
WORM SPECIFIC OR VERMIFUGE.

SYMPTOMS OF WORMS.

THE countenance is pale and leaden-colored, with occasional flushes, or a circumscribed spot on one or both cheeks; the eyes become dull; the pupils dilate; an azure semicircle runs along the lower eye-lid; the nose is irritated, swells, and sometimes bleeds; a swelling of the upper lip; occasional headache, with humming or throbbing of the ears; an unusual secretion of saliva; slimy or furred tongue; breath very foul, particularly in the morning; appetite variable, sometimes voracious, with a gnawing sensation of the stomach, at others, entirely gone; fleeting pains in the stomach; occasional nausea and vomiting; violent pains throughout the abdomen; bowels irregular, at times costive; stools slimy, not unfrequently tinged with blood; belly swollen and hard; urine turbid; respiration occasionally difficult, and accompanied by hiccough; cough sometimes dry and convulsive; uneasy and disturbed sleep, with grinding of the teeth; temper variable, but generally irritable, &c.

Whenever the above symptoms are found to exist, DR. C. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE will certainly effect a cure.

IT DOES NOT CONTAIN MERCURY in any form; it is an innocent preparation, not capable of doing the slightest injury to the most tender infant.

The genuine DR. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE bears the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrapper.

LIVER PILLS

are not recommended as a remedy "for all the ills that flesh is heir to," but in affections of the liver, and in all Bilious Complaints, Dyspepsia and Sick Headache, or diseases of that character, they stand without a rival.

AGUE AND FEVER.

No better cathartic can be used preparatory to, or after taking Quinine.

As a simple purgative they are unequaled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated.

Each box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

Each wrapper bears the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS.

Insist upon having the genuine Dr. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.

HOME REMEDY.

A CERTAIN AND SPEEDY
CURE FOR SCROFULA.

FACTS ARE STUBBORN THING

TRADE MARK TRADE MARK
(Registered.)

A BRIEF HISTORY:

The following is from the Raleigh News, and was a voluntary insertion and not an advertisement:

"Years ago an old Indian left a receipt for curing Scrofula with Mrs Person's father. Mrs. Person lives in Franklinton, or in that section. A child was born to Mrs. Person, and it had the Scrofula. The doctors gave it up to die. She thought of that receipt, that was now old and musty, and hid away in an upstairs drawer. She concluded if the child was bound to die, it wouldn't hurt to follow that receipt. She went out and gathered the herb, got the whiskey, and did as directed to the child. Her child now lives well and hearty. More than this: Only a few months since a South Carolinian, whose name has slipped us, was suffering with some scrofulous affection on the heel. He had been to the Hot Springs in Arkansas, and from there he went to Kittrell Springs. Nothing did him any good. At Kittrell's they told him of Mrs. Person's receipe, and Dr. — wrote to Mrs. Person if she cured that South Carolinian her receipt was worth money. And the South Carolinian sent her word if she cured him he would give her five hundred dollars. She sent him directions what to do, and added if they cured him he could send her twenty-five dollars; she wouldn't ask five hundred. The South Carolinian went home, and shortly afterward sent Mrs. Person a check for twenty-five dollars, and wrote the most grateful letter he knew how. Bless those old Indians. We would like to have one for a near neighbor."

UNEQUALLED AS A BLOOD PURIFIER.

MRS. JOE PERSON:

The medicine I purchased of you last winter proved of lasting benefit to my son, who was troubled with 27 running sores, some of them quite large, and of a scrofulous nature. In less than three weeks after commencing the use of your remedy, he was perfectly restored, and is to-day quite sound and healthy. As a TONIC AND BLOOD PURIFIER IT HAS NO EQUAL, hoping that you may be spared for many years of usefulness, I remain, Very respectfully,
L. J. STOKES.
Louisburg, N. C., May 22, '78.

AS A TONIC AND ALTERATIVE

MOORESVILLE, IREDELL Co., N. C.

Being desirous of adding my testimonials to others, concerning the merits of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy for Scrofula, I take pleasure in saying that as a tonic and alterative I do not think it has an equal. I have fairly tested it, and after trying Vegetine, Sarsaparilla, Vinegar Bitters, and various other remedies, I have no hesitation in pronouncing it far superior to any TONIC I have ever used. When I commenced using Mrs. Person's Remedy I was very weak, complection sallow, and now I am WELL,
Respectfully your friend,
MRS. H. T. BROWN.

THREE CHILDREN IN THREE WEEKS.

CASTALIA, N. C.

MRS JOE PERSON:

Dear Madame—Your letter has been received, and on account of being absent from home for a week or two, have not had the opportunity to answer it. I certainly will take great pleasure in doing all that is within my power towards getting you patients for treatment of scrofula. I hardly know how to express my gratitude to you for curing my three little children. They took medicine from my family physician for about two years, with scarcely any relief at all. I tried your remedy, and in less than three weeks they were all perfectly cured, and have never shown any sign of breaking out again. I feel very thankful to you. I can safely say that I believe your remedy to be a certain cure for Scrofula. If I can ever be of any service to you in any way, I want you to be sure and call on me. Yours truly,
WM. H. ARRINGTON.

"It will Cure if Fairly Tested."

It gives me much pleasure to be able to state that I have derived an effectual cure of Scrofula from the use of Mrs. Joe Person's remedy for that disease. I had suffered from Scrofula for more than three years, and had despaired of eve. getting well. I was treated during that time by three very eminent physicians, without any good result. I then went to the National Surgical Institute, at Atlanta, Ga., and was treated there more than two months, with no better result than my family physicians met with. After I returned from the Institute I was persuaded to try Mrs. Person's remedy, and I had not used it more than a week before I discovered its curative and healing properties. My sores soon began to heal, and the color of my skin changed as fast as the sores healed. I had not thought of ever getting well again, but my hopes increased, my low spiritedness fled before the remedy, and I am now enjoying splendid health and am in good spirits. The remedy is mild as a purgative, and a strong tonic; it will heal the most stubborn sore in three weeks if taken regularly. It is my opinion that it should be taken some time after the sore is healed, to remove the cause of its effects. It should be taken regularly by all means, for I have sometimes neglected it, from the pressure of business, and in all cases found that the cure already made would commence to retrograde, and for this alone it should be taken regularly until an effectual cure is completed. Nothing should prevent regularity in the use of the remedy and it should be taken at the proper time. I would recommend to all who are suffering from Scrofula to try it. It will surely cure you if you give it a fair test. I speak from experience, and not from hearsay. I am a grateful recipient of a cure from the use of it and I am under many and lasting obligations to Mrs. Person for the great relief I have obtained from its use. Sufferers, try it and be cured, is my advice.
I am, respectfully,
JAMES A. MORRIS.
KITTRELLS, N. C.

My receipt for the cure of Scrofula has been tried by me with the most unprecedented success for the last twelve years, and I have no hesitation in recommending it as a sovereign cure for that disease and as a general Tonic and Blood Purifier. It is everywhere giving perfect satisfaction, while my experience with it is too limited for me to specially recommend it for other diseases, I believe it will ultimately prove to be of benefit in all cases arising from impurity of the blood and probably for other diseases.

A CASE OF CANCER.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., Aug. 12, 1878.

MRS. JOE PERSON:

Dear Madam—I have been using your Remedy for scrofula over five months as an experiment for cancer. The cancer is of long standing, the doctors have been treating it, more or less, for twelve years, it has taken off my upper lip and a good part of my nose. When I began to use your Remedy it was growing rapidly worse, but the medicine seemed to check it very soon, and it has not made much progress since, except about two months ago, the medicine gave out, and I was without several days. It then seemed to start anew, and grew worse very fast, until I had taken the medicine about a week, since then it has not changed much. I think if I could have had the medicine soon enough, it would have cured me.

For more than a year before using your medicine, I was troubled very much with a disease of the heart, an irregularity in its action. It would miss every third beat for hours, then at other times it would increase in its action, and run up to 200 beats per minute. Since using your medicine I am almost entirely relieved of this, rarely feel it, and then not enough to speak of it. I would recommend any one suffering with heart disease to try your medicine. As a Tonic and Alterative, I do not think it has any superior. I have been using all the most powerful Alteratives known to the medical profession for the last 12 years and I know of none superior to this. I think your medicine is destined to be a great blessing to the afflicted. Let every one that needs a Tonic or an Alterative give it a trial, and I do not think they will be disappointed.
Very truly and Respectfully,
JOHN BUIE, Box 141,
Fayetteville, N. C.

DAILY NEWS

TUESDAY,.....DECEMBER. 10 1878

THE CITY.

Weather Probabilities.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 9.

For the South Atlantic States, cloudy and rainy weather, warm southerly, veering to colder northwest winds, falling, followed by clear rising barometer.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

——Sheriff J. J. Nowell went to New Berne yesterday, on official business.

——The last issue of the Goldsboro Messenger contains a wood cut of the late Maj. Gales, and an extended notice of his life and services.

——Mr. B. S. Bingham, one of the most active Martin street merchants, is erecting a handsome dwelling in the northeastern portion of the city.

——Messrs. Bradley S. Johnson, of Baltimore, and Thomas Kilvert, of Philadelphia, were yesterday appointed Commissioners of Affidavits for this State.

——Letters addressed to D. O Davis & Co., Richmond, Va., and to Proprietor of Tate Springs, Tenn., are held for lack of postage. There is a large paper box with no address held at the office.

The Kitchen-O'Hara Case.

R. H. Battle, Jr., Esq., left yesterday for Rocky Mount, to argue the mandamus against the Board of Canvassers of Edgecombe county, in the above named contested election case. He appears for Mr. Kitchen.

Oakwood Cemetery.

The inclemency of the weather prevailed the meeting at Metropolitan Hall, which was called for last evening, to take steps to beautify the grounds of this resting place of the dead. The president of the Association will give due notice of the time when such meeting will be held.

Helen D'Este.

The benefit given by the clever people of Wilmington to this troupe, resulted so well, financially, that the company will now fill their engagements. They left Wilmington for Fayetteville, Saturday night, and will next come to this city.

Christmas Excursion.

Mr. J. F. Wilson will take charge of an excursion train from Weldon to this city on the 21st inst., for the purpose of permitting the people on the line of the R. & G. R. R. to visit this city and make Christmas purchases. Nice coaches will be reserved for ladies and their escorts. A capital opportunity will thus be given to visit the city and lay in nic-knacks. The fare for the round trip is only $1.50

The Injunction Case.

The case of the injunction against the taxes of this county attracts a good deal of attention. About 40 persons went to the Sheriff's office yesterday and made themselves parties in the suit. The Sheriff will collect the regular taxes from all who have not so entered into the injunction, until the 13th inst., when the case comes up before Judge Seymour, here.

The Bridge at Milburnie.

W. R. Pool, Esq., chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, was in the city yesterday, to make arrangements for the repair of the bridge over the Neuse, at Milburnie, which is now unsafe for travel. It is thought that the magistrates of the county will have to meet to order the work done, as the amount will be over $500, and the County Commissioners cannot appropriate sums larger than that amount.

I. O. O. F.

Manteo Lodge, No. 8, will meet this evening at 7 o'clock. P. G. R. Chas. M. Busbee will deliver his lecture on the "Work and Principles of Odd Fellowship," and will also exemplify the secret work of the order. Members of Seaton Gales Lodge, No. 64, and Raleigh Lodge, No. 65, also visiting members in the city, are fraternally invited to be present. Knowing the qualifications of Mr Busbee, a pleasant evening is predicted.

Personal.

The New Orleans Democrat of Friday says: We received a call last evening from Major Joseph A. Englehard, Secretary of State for North Carolina, and Major Frank H. Cameron, of the city of Raleigh. These gentlemen are stalwart Democrats of the old North State. Their business in the city just now, however, is not of a political nature. They come as delegates to the Commercial Convention in session at the Varieties Theatre.

Department of Agriculture.

Mr. Wolfe, editor of the Monroe Enquirer, Monroe, N. C., has sent the Department a cabbage weighing 23½ pounds, which is certainly a mammoth vegetable. His merits as an agriculturist are only equaled by those as a newspaper man.

Mr. W. T. Whitaker, of Whitaker Depot, has sent some beautifully made and substantial wooden bowls of all sizes, which reflect credit upon his workmanship.

Runaway.

After a long period of rest Raleigh had an exciting runaway yesterday morning, which made the vicinity of the market house pretty lively for a few minutes. The horse of John Stills' butcher cart started off from his post on the North side of the market, and ran up Fayetteville street. He left a wheel of the vehicle at the market pump, ran into a wagon in front of Julius Lewis' store, and then careered up the street with the remnants of the wagon. All went to utter wreck at the corner of Hargett street, but hurt no one, nor was the horse injured.

The Graded School.

The following names are reported on the Roll of Honor from the Intermediate Department, third year grade, of this school:

Best Deportment: Nellie Palmer, Flora Edwards, Mary Besson, Lulu Ellis, Johnnie Blacknall, Ida Ferral', Lizzie Ferrall, Ella Bishop, Fannie Ferrall, Myrtle White, Lizzie Broughton, Jimmie McGee, George Lumley, Lizzie Lancaster, Eddie Hood, Robert Bunch, Calvin Jordan, Eddie White, Fred. Mahler.

Scholarship: Mary Besson, Alice Lazwell, Genevieve Jordan, Laura Cully, Sterling Manly, Robert Starke Melvin Andrews, John Betts, John Fagan, John Dugger, Robert Bunch, Otto Spink, Enrest Hayes, Eddie White, Lena McDonald, Fannie Ferrall, Ella Parker, Myrtle White.

Meeting of Magistrates With County Commissioners.

Mr. Poole, the Chairman, has notified the Board of Magistrates of Wake to meet with the Board of Commissioners in this city, on the first Monday of January, 1879, to provide for the rebuilding of Milburnie Bridge, over Neuse River.

Funeral of Mr. E. S. Badger.

A great crowd assembled in Christ Church at 3:30 p. m., on Sunday, to witness the funeral services of this deceased gentleman. The scene was a solem one, as the Rector, Rev. M. M. Marshall conducted the prescribed burial service. The remains, which lay in an elegant casket covered with flowers, were carried to Oakwood and there interred, a large number of relatives and loving friends following them to their place of interment.

Fire Last Night.

At midnight last night the bell clanged out the fire alarm, and in a few moments the red reflection of the flames was visible. They were found to proceed from the one-story frame dwelling on east Davie street, occupied by B. Y. Rogers, Esq. Mr. Rogers was in the house, lying dangerously ill in a room in the rear. By his side was a watcher. The attention of the latter was attracted by the peculiar crackling noise of fire and running to the front of the house he found it in flames. These appeared to have originated in the parlor, in which was a coal fire and two kerosene lamps. The neighbors were alarmed and some carried the sick man to a place of safety across the street while others went to work to save what property they could. A good deal was carried out, but despite the heavy rain the building burned like tinder. The Chemical engine was first at the scene, followed by the Bucket company. The fire did no damage to other buildings.

The Inimitables.

The mirth-loving public, on pleasure bent, did not permit the inclement weather to debar them from an evening's enjoyment with the troupe of minstrels, last evening, for Tucker Hall was snugly filled. The troupe of Barlow, Wilson, Primrose and West, by the varied excellencies of their performance, as well as by their finished acting and the exceeding refinement of all, well merit the appreciation in which the public hold them. Where all are par excellence, distinctions are invidious, and one and all were the recipients of hearty and frequent encores. In fact the entire performance drew almost continued bursts of applause from a very refined auditory. The jokes and quips were new, the dialogues lively and racy, and there was a sparkle about the entire performance peculiarly its own. The "end men," Milt. Barlow and George Wilson, were unapproachable, and were the very embodiment of the comic. As delineators of the darkey, both were felicitous, and no nigger could surpass their make-up and language. The "Queen City Quartette" rendered several songs in particularly rich tones, and drew much applause. Primrose and West, in their long shoe and clog dances, showed extraordinary ability and evinced their right to wear the champion belts. The barnyard imitations by Ed. Fox, on the violin, were marvellous. The farces were irresistibly ludicrous. The superiority of Milt. Barlow in his delineations of the aged darkey, can no longer be questioned. He has no equal. The merits of the troupe entitle them to appreciation everywhere, and a full house will greet them this evening. The programme will be entirely different from that of last evening.

The Fishing Interests of Eastern North Carolina.

The following statement of the value of the catch of fish in Albemarle Sound and the streams which empty therein, has been sent the Department of Agriculture for publication, by Dr. W. R. Capeheart, of Avoca. The estimate is carefully made from data which may be relied on, as the Dr. is admirably informed on all the details of the subject. He says there are 1200 hands employed in the fisheries on that sound, and the fish are caught by means of immense seins, dutch nets etc. "The annual catch of herring is 47,000,000; of shad 337,000; of striped bass, 168,000; of white perch, 125,000; of sturgeon, 1,150. The actual cash value of these is $226,852.50. The estimated expenses for the time are $175,000, leaving a balance of $51,852.50 as the reward of the industry.

The above does not include the fish caught in the thousands of gill nets. The fertilizing material, offal and refuse of the fish amount to 9,400,000 lbs., a quantity sufficient to manure 4,700 acres of corn, giving an average increase of 10 bushels to the acre; and this adds to the sum before given $25,352.50, making the grand total net value of the catch $75 352 50," Dr. Capeheart further says that propagation will in 10 years treble the value of the shad catch in these waters.

The Commissioner has received from Mr. W. H. Oliver of Newbern, who has given the matter special attention, and whose statements are of much value, the following in regard to the catch of fish in the waters near Newbern: "The quantity of fish taken annually is enormous, while the variety is infinite. It is impossible to accurately estimate the quantity, but some idea of it may be formed from the fact that on the A. & N. C. R. R. alone, from one to two carloads are daily shipped. The various lines of steamers also take away enormous quantities. This does not include salted fish. No fish are more esteemed north than those from these waters. The number of persons dependent upon the fisheries for support is from 8 to 10 thousand.

Fish from this section go to all the northern cities, and to all parts of this State. The value of the shipments of fresh fish is not less than $100,000 per annum. The business in salt fish is large, and has greatly increased in the past few years.

The first shad which were artificially hatched under the supervision of the Agricultural Department of this State were placed in the Neuse two years past, and in one year more they will, as usual, return to the river in which they were released. It is important, and it should receive the special attention of the Legislature that some means be taken to stop the great destruction of fish which has been carried on. It has been and still is the custom to take thousands of fish while spawing. They are then worthless, and when it is known that each spawner produces from 40 to 50 thousand young, it shows the importance of stringent laws for the protection of the fish, as the present ones are totally inadequate."

The valuable data continued in these statements are to be embodied in the Handbook of North Carolina, which Col. Polk is now engaged in preparing. They will form a part of a work of the greatest interest to the people of the State. By the courtesy of the Commissioner these facts are gathered from the communications mentioned.

Wine Products of New Jersey.

This state is becoming celebrated for grape culture and wine. Some of the richest port in the world is produced in New Jersey by Mr. Alfred Speer, whose name has become celebrated as a producer of strictly pure unadulterated wine. The Port Grape Wine of Mr. Speer was awarded the highest premium at the Centennial, is not bottled or put in market until it is four years old, and has become thoroughly fine and mellow. It has proved itself a wonderful assistant to physicians, who prescribe it from the fact that they have hitherto found it difficult to obtain a pure Port Wine. This wine is recommended for debilitated persons; and is given to consumptives to use with fresh raw eggs, and as a medium for taking cod liver oil. The difficulty of getting an imported or even a pure California Port is well understood to be so great as to preclude doctors from allowing their patients to run the risk of its use. Mr. Speer being aware of this fact has taken the utmost care in the making of his wine from the ripest and finest grapes, so as to supplant the imported wines by producing a genuine article. His wines are known by chemists to be pure and the most reliable for medicinal purposes. The Druggists throughout the country sell it as bottled by Mr. Speer.—N. Y. Tribune. LIVELY STOCK OPERATIONS.

The current of recent events has given great impetus to business in Wall street and many successful turns are reported where immense profits are made in short periods. The most successful way that we have heard of yet for operating in stocks is by the Combination Method. Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Banker, New York. By this system thousands of orders in various sums are pooled into one vast capital and operated under the most experienced and skillful management, thus securing to each shareholder superior advantages and profits, not possible in any other way. Profits are paid at end of 30 days. J. Jones, of Boston, made $747.30 on an investment of $100. Many others are doing as well or better. Capital in any amount from $ 0 to $100,000 can be used with equal proportionate success by this Combination or Co operative Method. $15 would make $75, or 5 per cent. on the stock; $100 would return $360 or 9 per cent. during the month, and so on, according to the market. The new circular contains "two unerring rules for success" and full information, so that any one can operate with profit. Stocks and bonds wanted. Deposits received. Government bonds supplied. What Eminent St. Louis Physicians Say.

PREVENTIVE OF MALARIA.—Colden's Liebig's Extract of Beef and Tonic Invigorator is a very agreeable article of diet, and particularly useful when tonics are required, being tolerated when other forms of animal food are rejected. In diphtheria, ague, malarial typhoid fevers, and every depressing disease, its use will be attended with great advantage. We have prescribed it with excellent success J. H. Leslie, M.; G. H. Copp, M. D.; S. B. Frasons, M. D.; R. A. Vaughan, M. D; Drs. S, L and J C Nimelet; Wm. Porter, M. D.; and many others. Sold by all druggists. nov 28-1w

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a receipt that will cure you, free of charge. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the Rev. Joseph T. Inman, Station D, Bible House, New York City. oct 26-d&wly
